One night at a secluded drive-in theater, a projectionist noticed strange happenings whenever he played a particular movie. The projector seemed to have a mind of its own, switching off and on erratically, as if controlled by an unseen force. Witnesses also reported hearing eerie whispers in the air while watching the film. Paranormal experts investigated the incident, but no conclusive explanation was ever found.

2. Close Encounter of the Third Kind

Drive-in theaters often provide a clear view of the night sky, making them a popular spot for UFO enthusiasts. One summer evening, a group of moviegoers at a drive-in witnessed a remarkable spectacle. Above the screen, they saw multiple unidentified flying objects hovering and performing intricate maneuvers in perfect synchronization. The incident left them in awe and sparked a newfound fascination with the possibility of life beyond Earth.

3. Vanishing Vehicles

During a late-night screening at a remote drive-in theater, some individuals claimed to witness parked cars vanishing before their very eyes. As the movie played, several vehicles would inexplicably fade away, leaving behind only tire marks and empty spaces. The phenomenon occurred multiple times throughout the night, startling both moviegoers and theater staff. No logical explanation has ever been provided for this eerie occurrence.

4. Telepathic Transmissions

In an astonishing turn of events, some individuals reported experiencing telepathic communications during their visit to a drive-in theater. As the film screened, audience members claimed to receive cryptic messages in their minds, seemingly coming from an unknown source. These transmissions ranged from philosophical musings to warnings about future events. While skeptics dismiss the claims as mere hallucinations, those who experienced it firsthand believe otherwise.

5. The Dancing Lights

One summer night, a drive-in theater became the stage for a mesmerizing light show. As moviegoers watched, colorful lights emerged from the night sky and twirled elegantly in synchronized patterns. The lights moved with such grace and precision that it felt like witnessing a celestial ballet. The event lasted for several minutes, leaving everyone amazed and yearning for an encore.

Drive-in theaters provide more than just a cinematic experience; they have become a realm where the ordinary merges with the inexplicable. The cases mentioned here are just a glimpse into the vast collection of strange encounters reported at these outdoor cinemas.

Next time you visit a drive-in theater, keep your eyes peeled, and who knows, you might just find yourself witness to a story worth sharing.

UFOs at the Drive-In!

Just imagine: you're watching your favorite movie at the local drive-in theater when suddenly you see a strange flying object swoop down from above and hover right over the movie screen. The object is metallic, saucer-shaped, with portholes and colored lights, and is totally silent. It's a UFO! Cars start honking and flashing their lights. People exit their cars, pointing and screaming. Some drive away in terror. Then the UFO starts to move around over the theater putting on a show that's far more interesting than the movie itself!

It may sound like science fiction, except it's true! This unique and groundbreaking book, by veteran UFO researcher Preston Dennett, documents more than 100 firsthand cases in which UFOs have targeted drive-in theaters. In these cases, UFOs hover at very low levels for long periods of time, and are observed by hundreds of witnesses. Often there are strange electromagnetic effects. Sometimes humanoids are seen.

•ARIZONA, APRIL 1952: A metallic structured object hovers over the Yuma Drive-In Theater in Arizona, not once, but multiple times.

- CALIFORNIA, AUGUST 1952: Visitors at the Terrace Drive-In undergo an incredible encounter, causing an investigation that reaches the highest levels of government.
- MISSOURI, JULY 17, 1954: Peter Davenport and hundreds of others sight a glowing object at the Skyline Drive-In. Davenport later becomes the director of NUFORC.
- MASSACHUSETTS, MAY 1963: A fleet of eight UFOs appears over the Wellington Circle Twins Drive-In, and puts on a display lasting an incredible 45 minutes long.
- GEORGIA, JUNE 29, 1964: A large metallic saucer swoops repeatedly over the crowded Atlanta Drive-In, causing the audience to flee in panic.
- OHIO, MID-1960s: UFOs swoop so low over the Mentor Drive-In that the movie is shut off so that the audience can enjoy the unexpected bonus show in the sky above.
- KANSAS, 1966: Hundreds of people see a UFO hover directly next to the Southhutch Drive-In, causing the entire audience to chase the object down the highway.
- CALIFORNIA, 1972: The audience at the Paramount Drive-In flees in panic as a metallic saucer swoops down and hovers right next to the movie screen.
- FLORIDA, 1973: When a metallic UFO hovers over the Fort Lauderdale Drive-In, the audience is amazed to see strange occupants peering from the portholes.
- NEW YORK, 1974: Viewers at the East Park Drive-In are stunned to see a UFO hover over the parking lot and start sending beams of light onto the movie screen itself!
- OHIO, 1974: A UFO targets the Ascot Park Drive-In, blacking out the movie and causing the entire audience to become hypnotically entranced.
- MAINE, JUNE 15, 1975: A UFO buzzes the audience of the Portland Twin Drive-In Theater, causing the audiences for two separate movies to race away in fear.
- CHINA, JULY 7, 1977: Three hundred people are injured and two are killed when a low-flying UFO targets an open-air showing of a movie to a crowd of 3000 people.

- CALIFORNIA, 1983: The entire audience panics and drives away when a UFO swoops down and hovers right next to the movie screen of the Edgewood Drive-In.

- OHIO, SEPTEMBER 2004: The entire audience observes a UFO which hovers above the Wilmington Drive-In and stays there for the entire length of the movie. There are too many cases to deny. This area of UFO research has been ignored for too long. Something profound is happening here. This book reveals a bizarre type of UFO behavior that only a lucky few have ever seen. So, come along on a fascinating journey that is sure to change the way you feel about UFOs.
