Quite a lot feels like it is happening at the same time.

Sasha has had another one of those dreams and it is frustrating because she can't remember much.

Kathelle has heard the first part of Sasha's story and isn't taking it well at all.

The workers have been hard at it, continuing work on the guard's property.

What else could possibly be happening?

Sasha woke up remembering only fragments of another dream with Mia. As the seconds drift by, she is forgetting more of her dream. The problem is she knows this one is important. It could even be vital. She's trying to hold onto it but it's slipping away too fast.

There is still one saboteur locked in the 'cell' Willus built. What's going to happen to him? Is there any way he could have a change of heart? How is he going to react when he finds out his family are now thinking differently than he is?

On top of everything else, Sasha has caused some major issues back home. As a result, she is getting a surprise visitor who isn't all too happy with her. Could it eventuate in Sasha no longer permitted to live away from Zangar? To add to the problems, a letter comes in for Marney Casota from Trans.

Is the construction of the guard's accommodation going to work this time?

Is Sasha going to remember enough of her dream, to do something with it?

What sort of nightmare has Sasha caused back home?

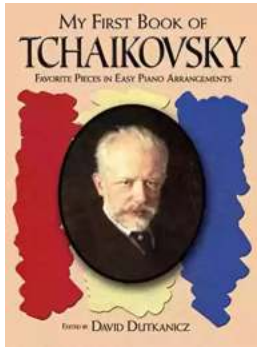

What is this message from Trans about?

Will the problems never end?
