A Journey Begins

With their van fully equipped and passports in hand, they set off on their epic journey. As they drove away from their familiar surroundings, a wave of excitement mixed with a hint of trepidation washed over them.

Their first stop was Europe, a continent filled with rich history and diverse cultures. From vibrant nightlife in Berlin to gondola rides in Venice, they immersed themselves in the European way of life. They marveled at the architectural wonders of Paris, explored the mystical streets of Prague, and indulged in delicious cuisines in Barcelona.

But the wanderlust in their hearts refused to be contained within a single continent. Feeling the call of adventure, they crossed into Asia - a land of ancient traditions, breathtaking landscapes, and warm hospitality. With the Taj Mahal as their backdrop, they explored the vibrant streets of Delhi and soaked in the tranquility of Bali's pristine beaches. They trekked through the lush rice terraces of Vietnam and got lost in the bustling markets of Bangkok.

Conquering the Americas

Finally, after months of exploration, they reached the Americas - the land of dreams and unlimited possibilities. From the grandeur of the Grand Canyon to the vibrant streets of Rio de Janeiro, Jason and Sarah were in awe of the continent's stunning diversity. They hiked through Patagonia's icy landscapes, swam with dolphins in the Caribbean, and experienced the rich cultural heritage of Mexico.

Their journey across three continents brought them face to face with people from different walks of life, each with their own fascinating stories to tell. From sharing meals with locals in tiny villages to bonding with fellow travelers over campfires, they formed bonds that would last a lifetime.

A Life-Changing Experience

Months turned into years, and the couple continued their incredible journey across three continents. Throughout their travels, they encountered challenges but also discovered hidden gems that weren't on any tourist guide. They experienced the kindness of strangers who went out of their way to help them and witnessed the resilience of communities affected by natural disasters.

But most importantly, this journey brought them closer than ever before. Their shared experiences became the building blocks of a stronger relationship, and they embraced the unpredictability of each new destination with open hearts and open minds.

Embarking on a journey across three continents in a VW van is not just about exploring new destinations; it's about immersing oneself in the vastness of our world and gaining a deeper understanding of different cultures. Jason and Sarah's incredible journey allowed them to experience the beauty of diversity firsthand, leaving them forever changed.

So, what are you waiting for? Dust off your travel dreams and ignite your wanderlust. Who knows where your own journey might take you?

Cambridge, 1961. A group of students set off on the trip of a lifetime. Against the backdrop of the Cold War they travel through the Soviet Union to the Middle East, South Asia and on to Africa. Their mode of transport? The iconic VW Kombi. This book tells the story of that trip, not just the people they met and the places they saw, but the many experiences - sometimes nerve-wracking, sometimes bizarre - that they encountered along the way. It provides a fascinating insight into a world on the brink of change - seen through the eyes of nine young men fresh from university. The two VW Kombis doggedly traversed treacherous mountain passes, near-impossible roads, jungle tracks and river crossings on their journey through Anatolia, the Middle East, Asia and Africa. This book is an affectionate and highly entertaining re-creation of the relationship between the nine young travellers and their companions, the two VW Kombis which functioned as transport, shelter, canteen and home. It is also a tribute to the determined and rugged determination of the VW Kombi whose descendants still tackle the highways and the more daunting roads of the world.
