The Artistry of Colors and Patterns

One of the most mesmerizing aspects of butterflies lies in the incredible array of colors and patterns displayed on their wings. From vibrant oranges and blues to soft pastels and intricate designs, each butterfly species possesses its own unique visual masterpiece.

John and Tess expertly capture these exquisite details through their stunning photographs. The vivid hues and intricate patterns freeze in time, allowing us to marvel at the sheer artistry of nature. Every click of the camera serves as a tribute to the astounding beauty found in each butterfly's delicate wings.

Behaviors that Amaze

Beyond their captivating physical appearance, butterflies also engage in behaviors that leave us wonderstruck. From graceful aerial dances to elaborate mating rituals, these creatures possess an enchanting world of their own.

Through their patient observations, John and Tess have witnessed these awe-inspiring behaviors firsthand. They have witnessed the gentle fluttering of wings during courtship displays and the incredible migration journeys undertaken by monarch butterflies. These remarkable moments fill their hearts with awe and inspire us to appreciate the wonders of the natural world.

Hidden Gems of Biodiversity

As John and Tess explore various ecosystems, they discover hidden gems of biodiversity that exist within the world of butterflies. From the lush rainforests of the Amazon to the serene meadows of Europe, each location uncovers new species and reveals the interconnectedness of the global ecosystem.

These hidden gems hold a key to understanding the delicate balance of nature. By documenting each species, John and Tess contribute to our knowledge of biodiversity and raise awareness about the importance of preserving these fragile habitats for future generations to enjoy.

With her senior year looming, Tess McKinnon has two goals: hanging out with her best friend, Liz, and avoiding her judgmental, alcoholic mother. Then the endearing John Bartley arrives—to tell Mrs. McKinnon that her daughter is dead. Distinctly still alive, Tess is baffled by John’s tales of 1800s time travel, rewritten lives, and love. She knows she’s never seen him before, but her feelings refuse to be denied. When Tess and John discover an aged newspaper clipping that indicates John’s uncle was hanged for Tess’s murder in 1875, John decides to return to his time to save his uncle’s life. Not really sure she even believes in this time travel stuff, Tess checks the article after John leaves. The words have changed, and she is horrified to find that John has been hanged instead. Armed with determination and modern ingenuity, Tess must abandon her past and risk her future for a chance to catch her own killer and find her first love for the second time.
