“Say It With A Ukulele...”

“... Grumbles some gramophone;

Christ, tell me what to say to her

Now that I'm used to my loneliness?"

This verse from the poem "Fog" by George Seferis, the Nobel Prize winning poet from Greece, perfectly reflects the nature of the instrument and the emotions it can evoke. First introduced by Portuguese immigrants from Madeira to Hawaii, this traditional musical instrument has one of the most distinct sounds and immediately immerses everyone into its mesmerizing melody. The name ukulele means "jumping flea" in the Hawaiian dialect and was inspired by the way the fingers have to move in order to perform a song.
