I feel utterly helpless, as though I'm staked out, alone, in the middle of nowhere, smeared with fresh blood and with twenty packs of raptors closing in around me. I can't save my child. My baby will die on Thursday and there's nothing I can do.

HE PROTECTS PEOPLE FOR A LIVING. BUT WILL A MISTAKE COST HIM HIS CHILD'S LIFE?

Eighteen-year-old Isaiah and his older brother Zechariah are professional hunters, earning their living culling and capturing some of the most dangerous predators ever to walk the planet.

When an out-of-control T. rex breaches a tourist resort Isaiah and Zech must act fast to save lives.

Little does Isaiah know that a testy T. rex and three packs of hungry raptors will soon be the least of his problems. A much-regretted New Year's Eve misadventure is about to cause a very different kind of breach—and change both their lives for good.
