Embarking on a DIY project allows you to unleash your creativity and explore your artistic side. Gone are the days of settling for mass-produced items that lack personality and character. Instead, you have the power to inject life and soul into your home, turning it into an expression of your style and personality.

Not only that, but embracing a DIY mindset can be a fantastic stress-reliever. The repetitive actions involved in crafting or renovating can be calming and therapeutic. Engaging in hands-on work allows you to immerse yourself in the moment, taking a break from the constant distractions of digital devices and screens.

A DIY project is also an opportunity to save money. Home improvements can often come with hefty price tags, but by doing it yourself, you can cut down on labor and material costs. Additionally, with a little bit of knowledge and practice, you can learn new skills and expand your repertoire, giving you the ability to tackle future projects without the need to hire professionals.

THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER

The brand new memoir from the Sunday Times bestselling author of The Road Beneath My Feet.

Taking 36 songs from his back catalogue, folk-punk icon Frank Turner explores his songwriting process. Find out the stories behind the songs forged in the hedonistic years of the mid-2000s North London scene, the ones perfected in Nashville studios, and everything in between. Some of these songs arrive fully-formed, as if they've always been there, some take graft and endless reworking to find 'the one'. In exploring them all, Turner reflects with eloquence, insight and self-deprecating wit on exactly what it is to be a songwriter.

From love songs and break-up songs to political calls-to-arms; songs composed alone in a hotel room or in soundcheck with the Sleeping Souls, this brilliantly written memoir - featuring exclusive photos of handwritten lyrics and more - is a must-have book for FT fans and anyone curious about how to write music.
