Following the positive reviews of his first travel log, A Holiday in Rhodes, Stephen Towers has now completed a second.

A Week in Skiathos, is the humorous reflections of a recently retired couple holidaying on a popular Greek island in the Aegean.

The log prompts a number of questions not least of which is, how stupid can some people be? As well as including observations of everyday life and holiday experiences, some of which you may wish to avoid, the travel log also includes some interesting facts about the island for anyone considering Skiathos as a holiday destination.

Proceeds from this travel log are used to support Macmillan Nurses.
