A tomboy. Her enemy next door. And an attraction she can't deny.

Jordan

It didn't matter my new neighbor was hot enough to melt an ice rink. I had rules for a reason. And falling for him would break the biggest rule of all. Never date a teammate. And let's be honest. It's never been an issue.

Until now.

Asher

Feisty. Fierce. Gorgeous. Jordan was all that and more. I never meant to tick her off that first day of school, but now she's all I can think about.

Too bad she hates my guts.

Can Asher change Jordan's mind about him and her rules? Find out in Playing to Win, Book 2 in the Trouble with Tomboys Series.
