ABOUT THE BOOK: Traveling is Bill and Nancy’s biggest uses of their time, resources, and interests. They have been married for over 50 years and have never missed an opportunity to travel. They frequently travel alone but have traveled with friends, and on occasion, on a tour. This book is one of their adventures in Turkey. fairy castles, hot air balloons, red lakes, snow capped mountains, living in caves and living underground, and finally dancing. Not a reference book but many, many great pictures, a little humor, and a chance to see Cappadocia.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Bill Rumpel was born and raised on a small dairy farm in north central Wisconsin. His boyhood consisted of working for his Dad on the farm, going to school, fishing, hunting, and exploring. He enlisted in the US Air Force, was commissioned as an officer 11 years later, served a total of 37 years active duty and retired as a Colonel. Bill has authored several books on Amazon and can be found by putting Bill Rumpel in the Amazon search engine.

ABOUT US: Nancy and I are both retired, in reasonably good health, and love to travel. It is the biggest consumer of our time, finances, and interests. We have visited about 70 different countries, some more thoroughly than others, and lived in Europe for 14 years. We were both born and raised in Wisconsin so we speak only English but know just a few words in German, French, and Spanish. We enjoyed a 40 year career in the U.S. Air Force which took us all over the U.S. and world and retired in 2012.

We are not hikers but enjoy walks, both short and long, we are not foodies but enjoy good food and trying new foods. We don't spend a great deal of time in cities unless there is something really specific to see or do that interests us. We usually keep moving seeing a lot of country, sights, people, and local color. We travel by car, ship, plane, or bus depending where and how we want to visit somewhere.

We currently have a home in Florida and had a mountain home in Colorado for many years, and, whenever the spirit moves us, live every/any where in our Winnebago Motorhome. Most often we travel alone, just the two of us, but do sometimes include other couples. We avoid large tours, big ships, and preplanned itineraries. We generally develop a timeline, a straw man agenda, study information about what we will see before we leave, and are flexible during our travel.

We are not a travel agency nor a trip advisor. What I present here is our own experiences as we experience them through our own lenses. The information I present is observations and feelings we experience and is not intended to persuade you to do or not do something the way we would. Everyone travels differently, experiences things in different ways, spends more or less money, has different preferences, and are physically and mentally able to handle things in different degrees. This is our story, you are most welcome to read it, ask questions if you have any, and enjoy it.
