Modern Fantasy Kids Fiction

Praise for ANTics: “It surprised me to learn that I could actually feel concern for ants, and harbor resentment toward a spider! The author really accomplished quite a remarkable feat, developing insect characters that the reader would actually care about!” - Readers’ Favourite Dakota Douglas sweeps the reader into the secret world of a bug's life in this gripping fantasy. In the style of Watership Down, this exciting story explodes on one day in the life of Zube and two fellow bug cadets.

High-spirited Zube wants to stand out from the crowd but that's tough when you're one in a community of thousands of ants. He dreams of action and adventure and soon gets more than he bargained for when a mission to bring back food to their colony goes horribly wrong. Before long, the trio are up to their antennae in danger as they face hurricanes, tidal waves and capture by their deadliest enemy.

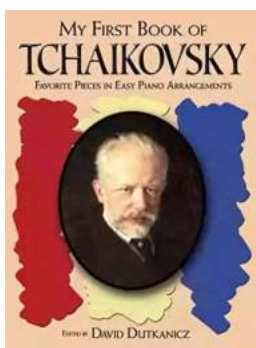

Ants walked the Earth with dinosaurs millions of years ago. And RepugnANT is as big and as mean as any angry T Rex. Can the cadets save their colony before it's too late?/p>

To find out, grab a copy of this funny and exciting story with many unexpected twists and turns sure to captivate young and old alike. Reviewers say ANTics is hard to put down and would make a great animated movie. Step into the colourful make-believe world of InhabitANT and judge for yourself.
