A small collection of poems I wrote some time ago. I am an up-and-coming writer working toward becoming a real author. I have been writing and enjoying my own works for a few decades now, creating for myself and my close friends and family. So now I wonder if the rest of the world might enjoy them as well. These are poems I have written during different times in my life; I wrote during some pretty romantic, productive, lackadaisical and even some pretty intense times. Thank you for reading.
