Fanny doesn't need friends or love at The Jane Austen Academy. She only needs her running and intends to lie low until she can try out for the Olympic track team. But the Academy is in danger, and in an effort to save it, Fanny must join forces with the friend she never knew she wanted. She finds herself center stage in the middle of the Academy's biggest love triangle as the lead in the school play... only this track star can't afford to break a leg.
