The Mysterious Legend of The Flying Dutchman

The Flying Dutchman is a legendary ghost ship said to sail the seas forever, unable to make port. A curiously eerie rumor surrounds this ship, claiming that the seven seas are its eternal punishment for blasphemy against God. Countless stories have been woven around this maritime enigma, but no other work embraces its mysticism like Castaways of The Flying Dutchman.

“Once in every seven seven-year lifetimes, He may try to retake his soul... He is forever suspended between eternity and damnation.”

Excerpt from Castaways of The Flying Dutchman

The tale follows the journey of Ben and Ned, an orphaned boy and his loyal dog, caught in the spell of The Flying Dutchman. As the ship endlessly roams the ocean, Ben and Ned become castaways, destined to survive alone until the end of time. Jacques' vivid storytelling brings to life the relentless power of the sea, transporting readers into a world of danger, magic, and wonder.

Unveiling The Young Heroes

Ben and Ned are two unforgettable characters whose friendship and resilience form the heart of the story. Ben, a brave and resourceful young boy, discovers his unique ability to communicate with animals, while his faithful dog, Ned, shares his unwavering loyalty and unwraps unexpected secrets along the way.

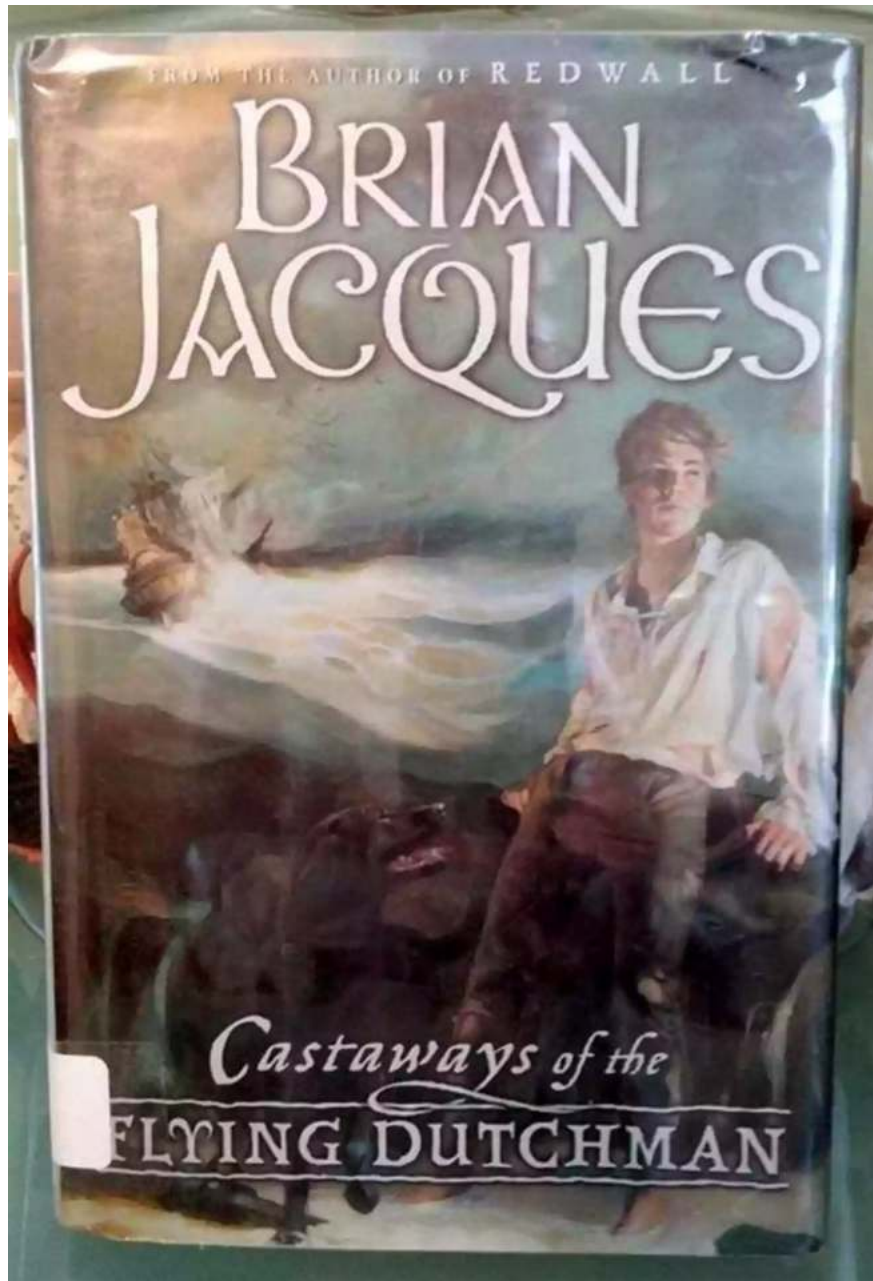

Together, they face unimaginable challenges on their never-ending journey. From battling treacherous sea creatures to navigating uncharted territories, Ben and Ned must draw on their courage and intelligence to survive. Their quest for redemption is both heartwarming and inspiring, reminding us of the power of friendship and the importance of staying true to ourselves.

A Riveting Tale of Adventure and Redemption

Castaways of The Flying Dutchman takes readers on an unforgettable adventure spanning different timelines and historical settings. Jacques masterfully intertwines elements of fantasy with historical fiction, allowing readers to witness legendary events such as the Great Fire of London and the voyage of Christopher Columbus.

The richly detailed world created by Jacques is filled with memorable characters and unexpected twists. From pirates to noble-hearted individuals, each encounter leaves a lasting impact on Ben and Ned. As they discover the consequences of their actions throughout history, they also learn valuable lessons about the power of forgiveness and the significance of redemption.

Fans of the New York Times bestselling Redwall series will be delighted with Brian Jacques' latest. The legend of the Flying Dutchman, the ghost-ship doomed to sail the seas forever, has been passed down throughout the centuries. But what of the boy, Neb, and his dog, Den, who were trapped aboard that ship? What was to become of them?

Sent off on an eternal journey of their own, the boy and his dog roam the earth through out the centuries in search of those in need. Braving wind and waves and countless perils, they stumble across a 19th-century village whose very existence is at stake. Saving it will take the will and wile of all the people--and a very special boy and dog.

"The swashbuckling language brims with color and melodrama; the villains are dastardly and stupid; and buried treasure, mysterious clues, and luscious culinary descriptions (generally involving sweets) keep the pages turning." (Booklist)
