Magic will bring them together.

Will destiny tear them apart?

After a failed attempt to end her life, Alia Carter leaves her childhood home to become a waitress in the state's most prominent hotel. Traumatized after her mother's death, she silently grapples with her pain until she saves the life of a mysterious man who reveals to her a world of true magic, and terrifying wonder.

Eric Wynter is a vampire Ward sworn to protect the creatures of the city. After centuries of heartache and loneliness, he is finally ready to end his existence.

When fate brings them together, Alia is irresistibly drawn into Eric's world, where witches and vampires are more than childish bedtime stories. Together, they discover she too has an incredible power running through her veins. A power so rare, every creature in the city will kill to get their share of it...

Will Alia allow Eric into her life, and into her heart?

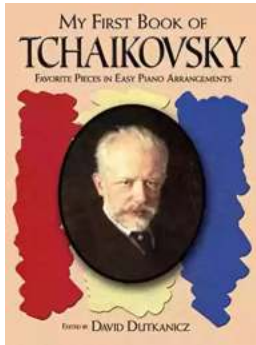

Will Eric be able to defy destiny and keep those he loves safe?

The Eos Key is a dark and magical story that will keep you spellbound long after the last page.
