Regina Murphy, known to her friends as Gigi, arrives at High Valley Ranch, Montana having traveled over on a wagon train full of potential mail order brides. She is eager to start her new life away from the one she left behind.

The first person she meets is Hawk, a tall handsome Indian with glossy dark hair and bronzed skin who quite literally takes her breath away...

Hawk is staggered by Gigi's beautiful red hair, creamy skin and her brazen inspection of his body from head to foot.

Gigi is outspoken, brave, and curious and she is in Montana to find herself a husband – but there's a problem, she cannot cook, sew, shoot a rifle or even ride a horse.

Hawk doubts that any man would want her with her lack of skills and he is left wondering how she will ever manage to find a husband...

Will Gigi find the man of her dreams or will her domineering personality and lack of skills prevent her from finding true love out here in the pioneering west?

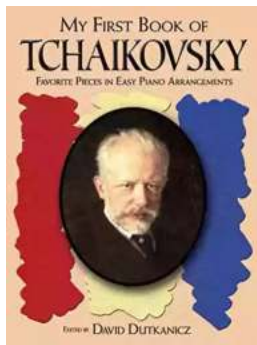

Can Hawk learn to accept Gigi for who she is, give in to his growing feelings and discover her hidden secrets in the process?
