"Life is meant for good friends and great adventures"

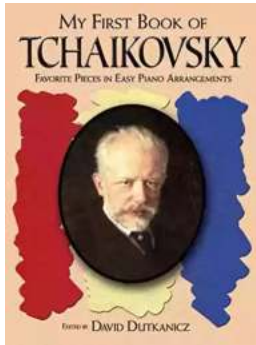

"A good friend listens to your adventures. A best friend makes them with you"

The book is a collection of stories both made up or exaggerated from real life. A few of them are about fun times at my friend's farm. A few of them are about trips made with friends and family that created fond memories. Some of them are made up about places I've wanted to go or just stories that popped up in my mind. In any case, these stories show the insight of a teenage girl into multiple sets of life.
