The eight gods that govern the world are tricky and fickle. Cade lives a simple life with his mother and brother, but when he finds a heart stone, he wonders if he can't change that. Heart stones are said to bring luck, and Cade's tiny family could surely do with good fortune. But heart stones aren't just good luck tokens; simply tracking one down is a sign Cade is a Finder, just like his mother before him. If the larger community finds out about this, Cade's entire life will change. And not for the better. Now he lives outside the law, struggling to find a way to reclaim what was once his, all while fending off a new hardship that he never anticipated: an overwhelming desire to take back what is his. No matter the cost
